

Ready Dining is Better, Faster & Smarter When You Pay with Ready

What is Ready?

With the Ready app guests can view and pay their restaurant bill from their phone as soon as they are ready to leave.

Who is adopting Ready technology?

- Forward-thinking restaurants looking to create connections with their customers on every level.
- Restaurants looking to decrease customers' wait time during peak hours.
- Relationships-based restaurants who want to relate with customers and keep them coming back!

ALWAYS A GOOD TIME!

“We’ve evaluated several self-pay solutions and decided that Ready is the one that truly solves the pain point and eliminates the wait.”

– Ian Tostenson, BCRFA President

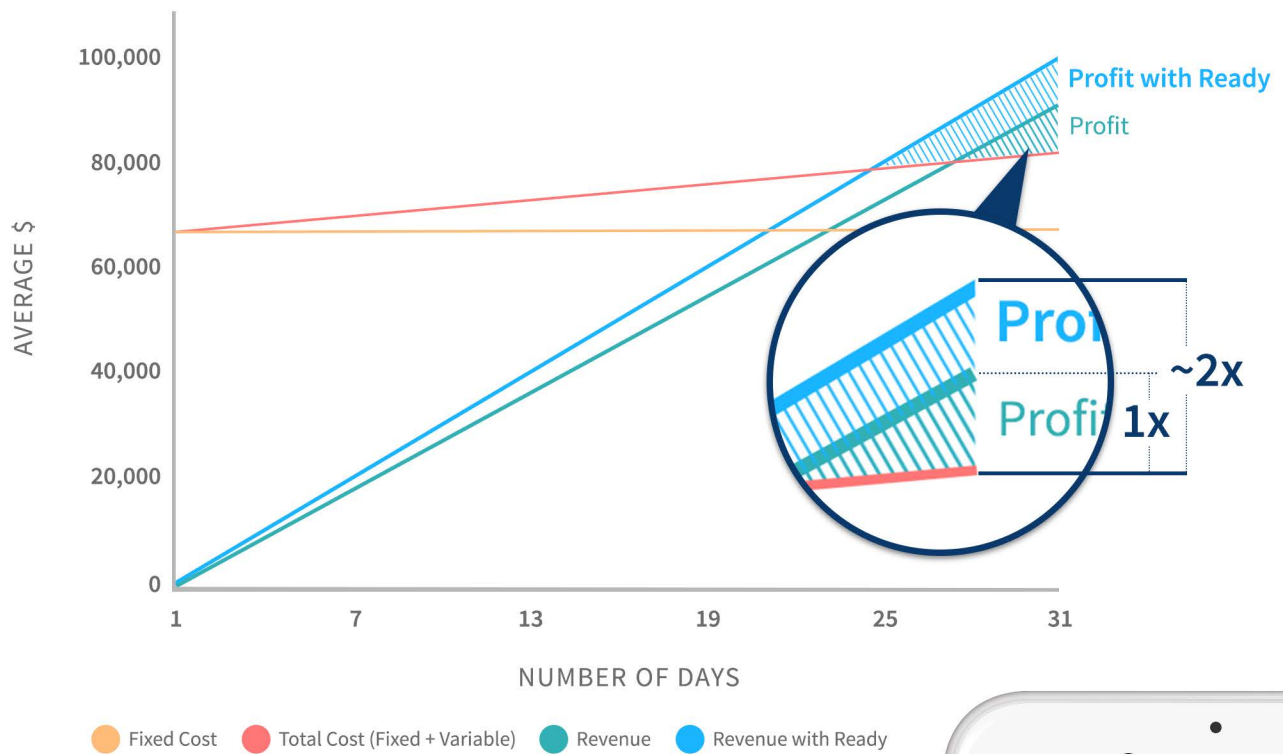

Ready

How Does Ready Work?

- We integrate with your existing POS system!
- Your waitstaff gets notified on your Ready iPad as soon as a check is paid
- Ready accepts Visa, MasterCard, Amex, and Visa-debit cards
- Guests' cards are saved so they only have to enter their info once
- Ready is an additional payment option for guests in a rush
- Guests download the app for free then scan a QR code to view their table's bill in real-time

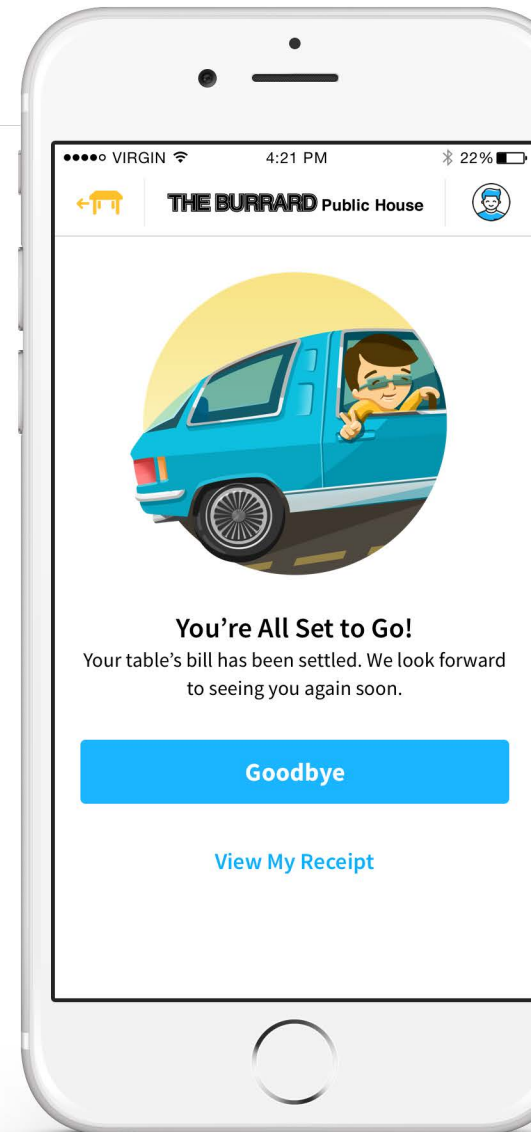

Restaurant's Monthly Cost vs Revenue

Why Use Ready?

- Paying the bill will no longer be a chore but a rewarding experience
- Less focus on boring cashier duties, more focus on delighting guests
- Faster table turns at peak hours means more server tips and revenue for you
- Be a trendsetter with this cutting-edge piece of smart technology

Ready

Why Work With Us?

During and after launching Ready in your restaurant we will be on-site to help with onboarding your guests and training your staff. You can count on us to be:

Flexible – We will use guest and employee feedback to monitor success and tweak / pivot as needed to accommodate you.

Responsive – you deserve a great service.

Passionate – we love what we do and are truly excited about Ready and how it will further develop with the help from you. Your feedback is important to us.

Fun – yes it's kind of important. We offer staff and customer incentives, over 100 iQmetrix employees that are Ready to come dine with you!

Long game – we focus on long-term partnerships and will not nickel and dime you.

Ready is a subsidiary of iQmetrix Inc., a leader in end to end retail management and customer experience technology. We're a Vancouver based company with products in over 18,000+ stores across North America. We've been in business since 1999, have zero debt and 14.5 billion in revenue processed through our POS solution in 2015.

What's the Cost?

It's simple: no hardware cost, no installation fee, no monthly fees – the only cost is 2.9% + 30 cents per customer transaction. This is an introductory rate, so act fast if you want to take advantage.

What's Next?

Talk to us today to discuss your opportunities. Our next features include the ability to respond to customer reviews, credit a portion of the bill for service recovery, and supporting bar tabs. Tell us what you sorely need to operate your business better!
